Ensure Justice Virtual Conference

March 5-March 6

Our annual conference considers the unique experiences of vulnerable people to exploitation and trafficking, which have intensified during Covid-19 uncertainty. Being Crushed will focus on early intervention solutions that build resilience, strengthen communities, and provide hope. Speakers will address topics such as resource scarcity, substance abuse and family violence, public health and mapping resources, and Adverse Childhood Experience tools.

2021 North Carolina Community Resilience Conference

March 15

The NC Community Resilience Conference is focused on promoting the community-based ACEs/Resilience work being done locally, sharing best practices and research from the NC Partnership for Children's Community Resilience Initiative, and starting a conversation about how we can share learning and support the movement to focus on addressing and preventing ACEs to build community resilience across NC. We encourage community leaders in the public health, local government, education, law enforcement, medical, faith, child advocacy, and philanthropic communities to attend. Register here:

Beyond Google – Discovering Online Resources in Investigations

March 22-23, 2021

Pittsburgh, PA

In the modern cyber-world, almost all criminal investigations have an online aspect that can be used to further investigations and more quickly solve otherwise difficult cases. Join us to examine open source online intelligence/information and learn how to leverage free platforms, databases, and web applications to strengthen criminal cases. Uncover little known facts and techniques to optimize results using online search engines and online internet resources, which will support your investigations and prosecutions. Learn how to complete and serve search warrants for a variety of electronic information and databases to further all types of investigations. Develop new skill sets to establish contacts and open-source intelligence networks to provide ongoing criminal and threat intelligence in your jurisdiction.
