

Human Trafficking Cases - January

North Carolina Nail Salon Owner Convicted of Forced Labor

January 8, 2021

The Justice Department announced today that after a five-day trial, a federal jury in Charlotte, North Carolina, found Thuy Tien Luong, 37, of Charlotte, North Carolina, guilty of forced labor after finding that Luong compelled the labor of one of her nail technicians at a nail salon she owned and operated in Davidson, North Carolina.

Read full press release here: <https://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/north-carolina-nail-salon-owner-convicted-forced-labor?fbclid=IwAR03gOKrmRYsfPWEArWs1-JDdcUtoUnzPtBSSNEXJ3dWqstJG3HtqeCqUrk>